Mr. Pendergast,

12-1 works well for our folks. Thank you for allowing us to come by on such short notice.

Andrew

Mr. VanderJack – Dave Evans had a family matter to address and was unable to schedule a meeting. I've queried our calendars and only tomorrow from 11:00 to 11:30, or 12:00 to 1:00 are available for the folks here who know about the Rosemont Mine.

Thank you, Dave.

Everyone, we have scheduled meetings tomorrow at 2 p.m., 4:30 p.m., and 6 p.m. We have one meeting on Thursday at 10:30 a.m., but otherwise Thursday's schedule remains open. Our folks are on a 6 p.m. flight out Thursday.

Thanks,

Andrew

Andrew,

I am not in office tomorrow, in but very heavily scheduled Thursday.

So I'm copying managers in WD, OWOW and Ken Kopocis so those interested to participate in meeting can weigh in and we can explore if there is a time that works.

If there are times that don't work for your folks Wednesday pm or Thursday please "reply to all" so we can all know what is possible on your end.

Dave,

I am emailing on behalf of Alan Mintz, who is traveling today in Los Angeles. If possible, I am hoping to schedule a meeting with you tomorrow or Thursday for Rosemont Mine representatives Jamie Sturgess and Gil Clausen, as well as David Bernhardt (who is with Brownstein Hyatt) and me (Alan will be in LA all week).

I am sincerely sorry to request a meeting on such short notice. This trip came together at the last minute, and Jamie and Gil are simply hopeful that they can touch base with all of the key agencies involved in the Rosemont review process while they are visiting.

Thank you,

Andrew
